

Agenda Conference 'Radio and TV as Learning Resources' Saturday November 7th 2015

9.15-9.30

Registration

9.30-9.35

Opening Address

Ciarán Murray, Coordinator Near Media Co-op

9.35-9.50

Keynote Speech

Dr Pauric Travers, Chairperson Broadcasting Authority Ireland, BAI

9.50-10.50

Panel one: Producers and their Work

Rob Carr, DCTV and Cultivate, producer of 'Power Down', 10 part series on the transition movement (sustainable and environmental series).

Gail Henry, RTÉ Lyric FM Educational Outreach Project. (Introducing students to making music based radio programmes with the use of a mobile radio studio visit to the school).

Tony Daly, 80:20 Educating and Acting for a Better World, St. Cronan's B.N.S., Bray, Co. Wicklow, Ireland.

Debbie Hutchinson, Near FM volunteer and producer of Sound & Vision funded 9 part series in conjunction with students of Larkin College called 'Novels, Plays and School Days'. (Discussing novels and plays used as part of the Leaving Certificate).

10.50- 11.20

Q&A World Café Style

11.20 – 11.40

Coffee Break

11.40-12.40

Panel two: Educators and their Needs

Peter Hussey, Associate lecturer at NUIM and Director of Crooked House, educational film resources for second level schools based on the work of the Kildare Youth Theatre.

Alicia McGivern, Head of Education, Irish Film Institute, Ifl.

David Cotter, NCAD, Co-ordinator for the Future Creators project and the Digital Pathways project. (After schools programme exploring aspects of coding, film-making, animation and other related digital media with teenagers from Dublin 8.)

Leticia Agudo, Course Leader, BA in Video & Film Production, Coláiste Dhúlaigh College of Further Education (CDCFE) & University of Wolverhampton.

12.40-1.10                      Q & A, World Café Style

1.10 -2.00                      Lunch

2.00-3.00                      Parallel Workshops: What does a project look like. Identifying collaborators.

Workshop 1: Peter Kelly, Near TV, Director of 10 part S&V funded series 'Science Investigators'.

Workshop 2: Mary-Elaine Tynan, Trinity educationalist and educational consultant with RTE Doc on One; 'Playing with Pride Series' (Documentary telling the story of a girl's Gaelic football team from Dublin's Sheriff Street during the run-up to semi-final.)

3.00                              Closing

Supported by

