NEAR MEDIA CO-OP

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

2.1 Code of Discipline

This code of discipline is intended to be used in situations where an employee's work or conduct at work is unsatisfactory. In many instances, disciplinary matters can be dealt with on an informal basis by the supervisor discussing the situation with the employee concerned and agreeing any necessary corrective action.

Inevitably, there will be times when disciplinary matters need to be formalised.

When such situations arise, it is of the utmost importance that the formal disciplinary procedure is followed.

2.1.1 Purpose of the Code

In order to provide for the well being of staff, Near Media Co-Op requires a number of systems and procedures. A Code of Discipline and procedure is essential to assist Near Media Co-Op to operate effectively and create a fair, efficient and caring working environment.

The first aim of this code is to ensure consistency in the manner and circumstances in which disciplinary action will be taken. The second aim is to make clear the rights and responsibilities of employer and employees when such action is being taken. The code and procedures will apply to all employees whether full-time or part-time, permanent or temporary, with the principle of ensuring fair treatment for all.

2.2.2 Operation of the Code and Procedure

The objectives of this Code of Discipline are

- to ensure that staff against whom allegations are made are dealt with in a fair and equitable manner, and
- to provide an adequate means by which impropriety can be dealt with effectively and the highest standards of conduct can be maintained.

This Code has been devised on advice from FÁS, and uses best practice from a number of public service and private organisations.

All matters of discipline shall be dealt with by management in a manner that protects the dignity of the employee and shall not be administered by management in the presence of other staff, volunteers or the general public.

All staff shall co-operate fully in the investigation of allegations of impropriety, for example, by providing such explanations as are sought in the course of the investigation.

In cases where a staff member has been found in breach of regulations or where conduct is otherwise unsatisfactory, a number of options shall be open to management in regard to disciplinary action, for example: warnings about need for improvement, reduction in salary, suspension, dismissal.

There are several areas covered by disciplinary procedures:

- ❑ Unsatisfactory performances of one's work duties.
- ❑ Absence without proper notification
- ❑ Any form of abuse or aggression
- ❑ Being unfit to carry out one's duties

The nature and/or degree of a staff member's misconduct would generally determine the appropriate disciplinary action to be taken.

Management will write to the staff member in question inviting them to attend a disciplinary meeting, explaining the reason of the meeting.

Staff may bring another member of staff to the meeting, if they wish.

Following the meeting, management will discuss the matter and make a decision.

The decision will be communicated in writing to the staff member within 3 working days.

The normal course of events will be:

- One verbal warning
- One written warning
- One final written warning
- Dismissal

In case of gross misconduct, management reserve the right to dismiss a staff member.

2.2 Grievance/Disputes Procedure

Grievances will occur in the normal course of interaction in any organisation or workplace. It is accepted that failure to provide a procedure to deal adequately with these grievances, as they arise, will inevitably lead to disputes affecting not only the aggrieved party but all those employed in the organisation/workplace.

It is Near Media Co-Op's intention to settle amicably, at all times, any disagreements between it and individual employees or groups of employees, or between employees themselves.

All grievances will be dealt without undue delay and at the earliest possible stage of this procedure. A senior member of management will ensure that all grievances will be dealt with consistently and fairly having regard to:

- Near Media Co-Op Policy
- Custom and Practice within Near Media Co-Op
- Labour Court and Third Party precedents

Stage 1.

You should first raise the matter with your Supervisor/Manager who will make every effort to solve the problem as quickly as possible. The matter will be discussed informally by the employee or employees concerned, with their immediate supervisor and agree any corrective actions.

Stage 2.

If you feel the problem has not been solved within a reasonable time of if you feel the solution is unsatisfactory, the matter will be referred to senior management. A meeting will take place within seven working days.

Stage 3.

Should the matter remain unresolved, it will be referred to the Labour Relations Commission or for a hearing by a rights commissioner. If still unresolved, it will be referred to the Labour court for investigation, or, to, the Employment Appeals Tribunal, under the relevant acts.

During the period in which the above procedure is being followed, no form of industrial action designed to bring pressure to bear on either party will take place, until all avenues as prescribed have been followed by both parties and at least 14 days have elapsed following the issuing of a Labour Court Recommendation or a determination of the Employment appeals tribunal.

In the event of any issues arising which cannot immediately be disposed of and which are being processed in accordance with the above disputes procedure, normal working-under protest if necessary will continue, pending a settlement

2.3 Bullying & Harassment Policy and Procedure

Purpose:

Near Media Co-Op is committed to providing all of its employees with a work environment free from bullying/harassment and sexual harassment. The aim of this policy is outline what constitutes bullying and harassment and what action the Near Media Co-Op will take in dealing with an offence of this nature.

Scope:

This policy is applicable to all employees (temporary and permanent) both in the workplace and at associated events such as meetings, conferences, and Near Media Co-Op functions whether on or off site.

It also applies to contractors, customers and other business contacts with which employees might reasonably expect to come into contact within the course of their employment.

Policy:

Near Media Co-Op acknowledges the right of all employees to be treated with fairness, dignity and respect and to a work environment free from bullying and harassment. Every employee has an obligation to be aware of the effects their behaviour has on others.

Any instances of bullying/harassment will be dealt with in an effective and efficient manner. Cases where the behaviour is proved to be repeated and consistent causing unnecessary stress and anxiety will be considered as gross misconduct and will be subject to disciplinary procedures up to and including dismissal. It is imperative that all employees respect the dignity of every colleague and be conscious of behaviour which may cause offence.

Definition:

Bullying/Harassment are defined as any form of repeated, unwelcome and unacceptable conduct that can be regarded as offensive, humiliating or intimidation.

An individual can be harassed on grounds of race, religious belief, national ethnic origin, gender, sexual orientation, age, marital status, disability or membership of the traveller community.

The Harassment can include conduct offensive to a reasonable person e.g. oral or written slurs, physical contact, gestures, jokes, displaying pictures, flags/emblems, graffiti or other material which state or imply prejudicial attitudes which are offensive to fellow employees.

Other examples of bullying behaviour include:

- Personal insults and name calling.
- Persistent unjustified criticism and sarcasm.

- Public or private humiliation
- Shouting at employees in public and/or private sneering.
- Instantaneous rage, often over trivial issues.
- Unfair delegation of duties and responsibilities.
- Setting impossible deadlines.
- Unnecessary work interference.
- Making it difficult for employees to have access to necessary information.
- Aggression
- Not giving credit for work contribution
- Continuously refusing reasonable requests without good reason.
- Intimidation and threats in general.

Sexual Harassment can be defined as conduct towards another person that is sexual in nature or has a sexual dimension and is unwelcome to the recipient.

Examples of this type of Harassment include:

- Sexual Gestures
- Displaying sexually suggestive objects, pictures, calendars or sending suggestive or pornographic correspondence(including e-mail)
- Unwelcome sexual comments or jokes
- Unwelcome physical contact such as pinching, unnecessary touching, etc.

The above examples are not exhaustive and only serve as a guideline to employees. Each case will be taken in isolation and dealt with in the appropriate manner.

COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

This policy adopts a two tiered approach (the informal and formal procedures) to dealing with issues of Bullying and Harassment in the workplace.

Informal Procedure:

It is often preferable for all concerned that complaints of bullying/harassment are dealt with informally whenever possible. This approach is likely to produce solutions, which are speedy, effective and minimise embarrassment and the risk of breaching confidentiality.

Thus, in the first instance a person who believes he/she is the subject of harassment/bullying should ask the person responsible to stop the offensive behaviour.

The person responsible should also be informed of Near Media Co-Op's bullying/harassment policy and advised that a further occurrence of this nature will result in a formal complaint.

In instance where a person is unsure whether the behaviour constitutes a form of bullying/harassment, he/she should discuss this with a supervisor or manager.

It is recognised that it may not always be practical to use the informal procedure particularly where the bullying/harassment is of a serious nature or where the person(s) concerned are at different levels in Near Media Co-Op. In such instances, the employee should use the formal procedure.

Formal Procedure:

Where a formal complaint is being made, the employee should contact his/her supervisor/manager as soon as possible. An employee making a complaint will be required to put his/her allegation in writing.

In the interests of natural justice, the alleged harasser will be made aware of the nature of the complaint, his or her right to representation and will be given every opportunity to rebut the allegations made.

While it is desirable to maintain utmost confidentiality, once an investigation begins it may be necessary to interview other employees. If so, the importance of confidentiality will be stressed to them and any statements taken will be circulated to both the complainant and the alleged harasser for their comments before any conclusion is reached in the investigation.

When the investigation has been completed both parties will be informed as to whether or not the complaint has been upheld.

All complaints will be treated seriously, confidentially and dealt with as soon as is practicable. Strict confidentiality and proper discretion will be maintained as far as is possible to safeguard both parties from innuendo and harmful gossip.

A record of all relevant discussions which take place during the course of the investigation will be retained on file.

ACTION POST-INVESTIGATION

Where a complaint is upheld, a disciplinary hearing will take place in line with Near Media Co-Op's disciplinary policy.

Should a case of bullying/harassment be proven then the Near Media Co-Op will take appropriate disciplinary action up to and including dismissal.

Records of any warnings for bullying/harassment will remain on an employee's file and will be used if any further allegations of a similar nature occur in the future.

Regular checks will be made by the person responsible for investigating the complaint to ensure that the bullying/harassment have stopped and that there is no victimisation.

Retaliation of any kind against an employee for complaining ago taking part in an investigation concerning bullying/harassment is a serious disciplinary offence.

In cases where it is established that a person made a false allegation against an employee, then he/she will face serious misconduct charges resulting in an immediate disciplinary hearing.

2.4 Health & Safety Policy

It is Near Media Co-Op's intention to protect our employees from accident or ill health at work. Near Media Co-Op will seek to ensure that all our equipment and systems do not constitute a risk to the Health & Safety of our employees and we will consult with employees on risk improvements.

Our objective is to meet our duties and obligations to our staff and volunteers by providing a safe and healthy working environment.

Near Media Co-Op is committed to providing employees with the necessary support and leave to adoptive employees. Unpaid Adoptive Leave of 24 weeks is available to adoptive mothers and sole male adopters. The Department of Social and Family Affairs provides the payment of an adoptive leave allowance for employees taking statutory adoptive leave.

If you wish to take the additional adoptive leave of 16 weeks, you must inform Near Media Co-Op no later than 4 weeks before your expected return to work date.

During Adoptive Leave, your rights such as annual leave are preserved and continue to accrue as if you were not absent from work.

4.1.8 Jury Duty:

However, under the terms of the Pensions (Amendment) Act 2002 the Co-Op is obliged to provide employees with access to a Personal Retirement Savings Account (PRSA). The current PRSA provider is Permanent TSB, (Artane Branch)..

4.3 Training and Professional Development

Training and Development is a management responsibility and is an ongoing process aimed at fulfilling organisational needs and individual growth. Near Media Co-Op intends to ensure that all employees appointed to a job are correctly selected, inducted and trained. Employees are obliged to co-operate fully with Near Media Co-Op training programmes.

Near Media Co-Op Policy endeavours to provide career opportunities for employees whenever possible and to encourage employees who wish to progress. Promotion will be at the discretion of management and will be based on suitability for the position to be filled.

Where possible Near Media Co-Op will make every effort to facilitate any employee who wishes to participate in further education and training opportunities to enhance their skills, career development and occupational mobility.

APPENDIX 1

Near Media Co-Op Health & Safety Statement.

Safety Statement:

This statement sets out the health & safety policy of Near Media Co-Op and the means through which that policy is to be implemented. Our objective is to meet our duties and obligations to our staff and volunteers by providing a safe and healthy working environment.

It is Near Media Co-Op's intention to protect our employees from accident or ill health at work. Near Media Co-Op will seek to ensure that all our equipment and systems do not constitute a risk to the Health & Safety of our employees and we will consult with employees on risk improvements.

Our approach to Health & Safety as far as is reasonably practicable will be:

1. To Provide a Safe Place of Work.
2. To continue to identify and control hazards.
3. To prevent as far as is reasonably possible, any improper conduct or behaviour likely to put the Safety, Health & Welfare of employees at risk.
4. To consult with staff on all Health & Safety matters.
5. To provide protective clothing and equipment where necessary.
6. To provide a safe means of entering and leaving the building.
7. To provide a safe system of work practices.
8. To provide appropriate information and training to staff members on a continuous basis.
9. To make Health & Safety a key issue.

Employer Responsibilities:

The responsibility for the provision of a safe place of work rests with the Committee of Management of Near Media Co-Op. Specifically these responsibilities are:

- To maintain a safe and healthy work environment for employees, in addition to conforming to all current statutory requirements.
- To provide the appropriate type and level of training to enable employees perform their work safely and efficiently.
- To make available to every employee appropriate equipment to ensure Health & Safety.
- To maintain a vigilant and continuing interest in all Health & Safety matters relevant to both the co-op and staff.

Employee Responsibilities:

As a valued employee of Near Media Co-Op you have a responsibility to yourself and your fellow workers to carry out your work in a safe and considerate manner. Employees must:

1. Co-Operate with the co-op in maintaining a safe work place.
2. Report any potential hazards to management and not work in any hazardous conditions should they; in the employee's opinion exist.
3. Be aware of the nearest emergency exits and fire fighting / first aid equipment.
4. Never interfere with or misuse anything provided by the co-op in the interests of Health & Safety.
5. Read the co-op Health & Safety statement and obey all mandatory signs.
6. Not partake in any form of horseplay or prank likely to lead to injury to you or others.

Smoking/Alcohol and Drugs:

It is not permissible to attend work under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs. The smoking of tobacco products is prohibited in the offices of Near Media Co-Op. Smoking can take place outside the co-op building at least 3 metres distance away from door entrances and windows.

This smoking policy forms part of the overall Health & Safety Policy and any breach will be dealt with under the Co-op's disciplinary procedure.

Visitors, contractors and temporary members of staff are expected to abide by the terms of this policy.

Manual Handling:

Manual Handling is defined as the "transporting of a load by one or more employees and includes lifting, putting down, pushing, carrying or moving a load, which by reason of its characteristics or of unfavourable ergonomic conditions involves risks, particularly of back injury to employees".

This is a priority issue because it is a major cause of accidents in the workplace. It is Near Media Co-Op's policy to minimise the need for manual handling of loads and so therefore should be avoided as far as is reasonably practicable.

Employees must check the weight of the load before attempting to lift it and if the load is too heavy get help. When lifting, follow the following basic principles.

1. Relax the knees. Lowering movements should start at the knees not the head.
2. Get close to the object to be lifted. Get a good balance by keeping the feet apart. One foot will automatically be ahead of the other.
3. When in position, bend the knees and lift with the strong muscles in the legs.
4. Lift gradually, smoothly and without jerking, keeping the object close to the body and the back straight.

Training:

The co-op is committed to identifying the safety training needs on an ongoing basis. Staff will be involved in the identification of hazards in the office and advised of the particular hazards pertaining to their area. Staff will be trained to respond to such hazards in order to prevent accidents/injury to themselves, their colleagues and clients.

All staff will be trained in emergency procedures and where appropriate, staff will be trained in the use of special machinery and equipment. All staff will be trained in the correct techniques involved in safe manual handling.

Consultation:

The co-op is committed to consulting with its staff members regarding safety, health and welfare in the office. Staff is involved in the identification of hazards and are trained in dealing with the hazards identified.

The safety statement will be included in Induction Training and staff will be advised on how to deal with any problems that arise.

Reporting of Accidents:

Staff are required to report all accidents and near misses, whether resulting in injury or not, to management. Under the Safety, Health & Welfare at Work General Application Regulations 1993, employers must report certain occurrences to the Health & Safety Authority and ensure records are kept on site for a period of 10 years.

The following details are required:

- Date, Time and Place of the incident.
- Name, Address, Occupation and Age of the injured person.
- Circumstances, including cause and nature of the injury and the arrangements made for its treatment. (See Appendix 1)

All accidents will be investigated by a member of management and a written report prepared. Corrective action will be taken where necessary to avoid a reoccurrence.

Accidents involving persons who are not members of staff but are visiting or working on the premises must also be reported.

Fire Procedures:

In the event of a fire and providing there is no danger to the persons concerned every effort should be made to extinguish or contain the fire pending the arrival of the fire brigade. The magnitude of the outbreak must dictate whether attacking the fire should take priority over reporting and evacuation.

All staff should be familiar with the exit routes and should also know the location and type of fire extinguishers in the office.

If you discover a fire you should:

- Activate the fire alarm.
- If there is a reasonable hope of extinguishing the blaze, attack the fire immediately.
- Do not under any circumstances, expose yourself to danger.
- Leave the building by the nearest fire exit and proceed to your designated assembly point.

If you hear the alarm you should:

- Switch off any equipment under your control and leave the building by the nearest fire exit.
- Do not stop to collect personal belongings.
- Once outside, do not enter the building until you are told it is safe to do so.
- Management will on occasion perform fire drills to ensure that procedures are known and followed in the event of a real fire.

Guidelines for VDU users.

As part of their duties some employees spend long periods of time using visual display screens. Any necessary adjustments will be made to avoid RSI, eyestrain and other ailments associated with work on screens, which must be adjustable for height, tilt and brightness. No employee will be asked or expected to work any computer which is not in proper working condition, or does not meet the highest specifications.

Employees working continuously on-screen should alternate tasks so that at least 10 minutes during each 60 minutes of work is spent doing off-screen type of work. This work is to be undertaken away from the screen, but does not constitute a break.

Employees who habitually use VDU's have the right to an eyesight test, the cost of which will be met or reimbursed by the co-op.

Hazard Analysis:

A hazard is anything at work that might cause harm e.g. Electricity, Hot Surfaces, Lifting Heavy Loads, Slippery Floors, and Poorly Lit Stairways etc. Staff must be aware of the potential hazards and risks involved and report specific hazards to management.

A hazard analysis will be carried out once a year by Management. Particular attention will be paid to areas of high risk i.e. Floors, Stairs and Manual Handling.

The co-op will remove hazards by engineering means where necessary.

First Aid:

First Aid boxes are provided to ensure that first aid supplies are easily accessible when required in an emergency. First Aid boxes are located at Northside Civic Centre Office, Near TV productions office and Near Online Office. They are to be checked weekly and shortages replaced. Employees have an obligation to ensure that First Aid Boxes, like any safety equipment, are not tampered with. Free access to First Aid Boxes must be maintained at all times. Painkillers cannot be provided in the First Aid Boxes.

Security:

Responsibility for building security rests with the management company of the building (i.e. CDC and Civic Centre) All visitors must comply with whatever security arrangements are in place. In some cases a swipe card is required for entry, in others a sign-in book is used. Any difficulties should be brought to the attention of the Project Co-Ordinator or Committee of Management.

Near also runs a drama group, record label and a number of other community media activities.

Child Protection is an issue of concern to all those working with young people today. Child Protection is about ensuring the well being and safety of all children and young people in our care. Near Media Co-Op is committed to providing a safe environment for any children or young people under 18 years of age with whom it interacts. We undertake to apply this child protection policy throughout the organisation by setting up detailed procedures and steps to be implemented across all areas of Near Media Co-Op.

The procedures can be categorised under the following headings:

- 1. Child-Centred Approach
- 2. Good Practice
- 3. Inappropriate Behaviour
- 4. Physical Contact

- Evaluate work practices on a regular basis.
- Provide appropriate training for staff and volunteers.
- Report and record any incidents and accidents.
- Update and review policies and procedures regularly.
- Keep primary carers informed of any issues that concern their children.
- Ensure proper supervision based on adequate ratios according to age, abilities and activities involved.
- Don't be passive in relation to concerns, i.e., don't 'do nothing'.
- Don't let a problem get out of control.
- Avoid taking a session on your own. If this is not possible then it should be in an open environment with the full knowledge and consent of primary carers.
- Avoid if at all possible giving a lift to a child or young person and if you do then make sure that primary carers are informed.

6. Reporting Procedures

6.1 Designated Persons

Sally Galliana, Radio Co Ordinator has been designated as the person to contact if you have an issue or concern about any aspect of a young persons safety and welfare. It is the responsibility of this person to support and advise staff about policy and procedures in relation to child protection and to ensure that procedures are followed. It is also the responsibility of the Designated Person to liaise with the Health Service Executive (HSE) or Gardai where appropriate.

Sally can be contacted at 8671190 or sally@near.ie

Ciaran Murray, Project Co Ordinator has been designated as deputy to Sally and can be contacted at 8671190 or Ciaran@near.ie

6.2 Grounds for Concern

The following excerpt from Children First: National Guidelines for the Protection and Welfare of Children (4.3.2 – p. 38) shows what would constitute reasonable grounds for concern;

- (i) specific indication from the child or young person that s/he has been abused
- (ii) an account by a person who saw the child or young person being abused
- (iii) evidence, such as an injury or behaviour, which is consistent with abuse and unlikely to be caused another way
- (iv) an injury or behaviour which is consistent both with abuse and with an innocent explanation but where there are corroborative indicators supporting the concern that it may be a case of abuse (an example of this would be a pattern of injuries, an implausible explanation, other indications of abuse, dysfunctional behaviour)
- (v) consistent indication, over a period of time, that a child is suffering from emotional or physical neglect.

6.3 Recording Procedures

The designated person will be responsible for the collection, safe and confidential storage of all information relating to a child protection referral. A copy of the standard reporting form is detailed at the end of Appendix 2.

6.4 Dealing with a disclosure/allegation

It is of utmost importance that disclosures of allegations are managed in a sensitive and discreet manner and any response to a young person making a disclosure should take the following into consideration;

- Take what the young person says earnestly
- React in a calm manner as over reaction may intimidate the young person and increase any feelings of guilt that s/he may have
- Reassure the young person that it was right to tell someone what happened
- Listen carefully and attentively
- Be careful when asking questions. Conversation should be supportive and for the purpose of clarification, allow the person to speak without interruption, accept what is said.
- Alleviate feelings of guilt and isolation, while passing no judgement
- Never ask leading questions. Do not seek intimate details beyond those volunteered by the young person. Such questions and suggestions could complicate the official assessment/investigation by the statutory authorities
- Do not express any opinion about the alleged abuser to the person reporting to you
- Do not confront the alleged abuser
- Write down immediately after the conversation what was said, including where, when and other significant factors noting marks and signs observed. All reports should be signed and dated by the person recording the event
- Check with the young person to ensure what has been heard and understood accords with what they actually said

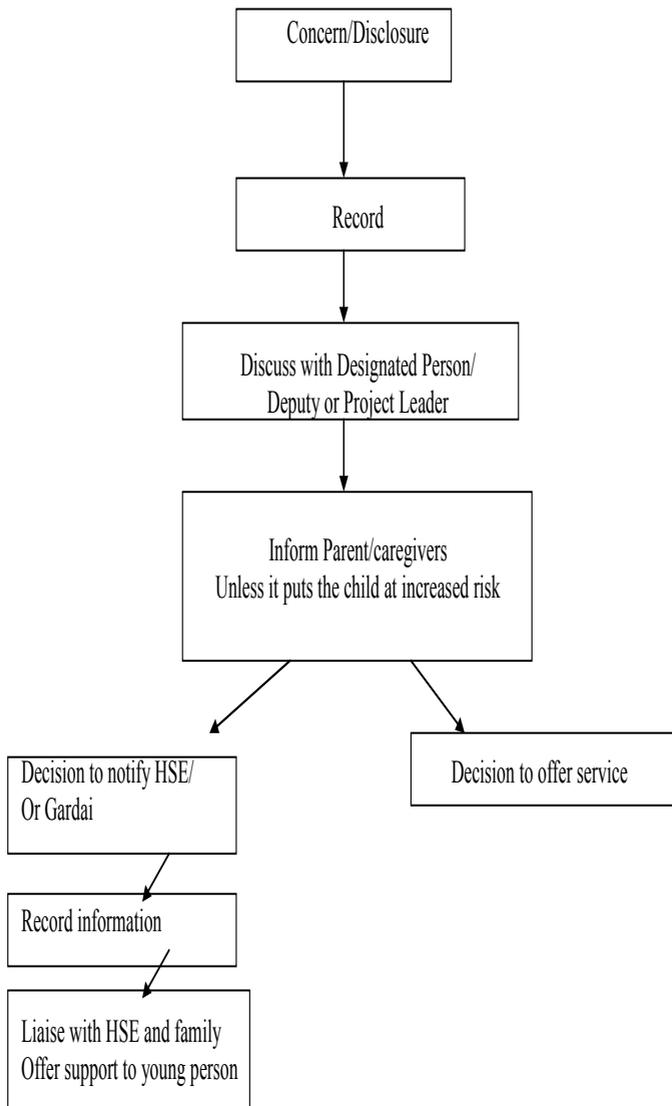

- Make no promises that cannot be kept, so not promise to keep secret what will be revealed
- Advise that you will offer support, but that you must pass on the information; ensure that the young person understands what will happen next.
- Explain and make sure that the young person understands what will happen next. Clarify the information is being recorded and referred. Ensure that it is confined and treated as strictly confidential, to be shared with only those

6.5 Reporting Procedures

If staff or volunteers have a child protection concern where they suspect a young person is being abused or neglected or a young person discloses an alleged abuse or neglect to them they should follow the steps outlined below.

1. Record concern or disclosure
2. Ensure in as far as is possible that no situation arises which could cause further concern
3. Immediately inform the Designated Person or if unavailable the Deputy Designated Person
4. The most appropriate person should discuss the concern or consult the parents/primary care givers. Parents/primary care givers or responsible adults should be made aware of a report to the Health Services Executive (HSE) unless it is likely to put the young person at further risk.
5. The Designated Person may contact the HSE duty social work department for an informal consultation prior to making a report
6. Information will be shared strictly on a need to know basis.
7. If there are reasonable grounds for concern the Designated Person will contact the Duty Social Worker in the HSE area using the standard reporting form available. Reports to the Duty Social Worker can be made verbally initially and then followed by the standard reporting form. Reports should be made to the HSE without delay.
8. The Designated Person will keep a record of all telephone calls and reports in relation to the notification to the health board
9. In case of emergencies outside of the HSE social work department hours contact the Gardai. In situations that threaten the immediate safety of a young person it may be necessary to contact the Gardai.
